

Your Partner in Music Education: CHATTANOOGA BOYS CHOIR 2023-2024

For additional information or to make reservations, email info@cbchoir.org or call 423-634-2299
For a full season calendar, audition details, or more information, visit www.chattanoogaaboyschoir.org

Fall Open House & Auditions

Tuesday, August 29 | 6:00pm
Second Presbyterian Church
Interested students are invited to audition for the 2023-2024 season! Observe rehearsals, visit the Computer Music Theory Lab, and take part in a brief audition (basic pitch matching, rhythm recollection, and aural skills...nothing needs to be prepared) following your tour.

Music Educator Open House

Tuesday, September 26 | 5:30-8:00pm
Second Presbyterian Church
Music teachers are invited to observe rehearsals of the Schubert, Concert, and Cantabile choirs then visit the CBC Computer Music Theory Lab. Afterwards, join the CBC Staff for hors d'oeuvres, Q&A, and to talk about how the Chattanooga Boys can be a partner for your school music program.

Winter Concert School Performances

Friday, December 1
10:00am & 12:00pm
First Baptist Church, 401 Gateway
This year's program showcases all of the CBC's choirs presenting a beautiful program on the theme of hope. Pieces of multiple cultures, languages, and traditions will be shared in an enriching and entertaining fashion. Highlights include Hope for Resolution/Thule Sizwe by Paul Caldwell & Sean Ivory, Candle of Hope by Becki Slagle Mayo, One Light by Evan Ramos, and A Winter Benediction by Chattanooga composer Ethan McGrath. Audiences of all ages will delight in entertaining renditions of 'Twas the Night Before Christmas, Torah Orah, The Twelve Days of Christmas, and more!

Music in Our Schools Month Performances

March 2024
Members of the Mozart and Schubert training choirs will travel to 3-4 HCS elementary schools to present a 20 minute program celebrating Music In Our Schools Month. Schools at which the choir has not performed in the last five years will be given priority.

"I Lift My Voice" Community Sing

Tuesday, September 12 | 5:30-6:30pm
Second Presbyterian Church
Members of the Chattanooga community are invited to participate in the choir's annual community sing event in honor of International Peace Day. All participants will learn Andrea Ramsey's "Be the Change" on-site and record it with members of the CBC for social media release on September 21.

Tenor-Bass Choir Festival

Saturday, October 21 | 9:00am-4:00pm
Baylor School
Tenor-Bass singers in grades 8-12 are invited for a FREE day of instruction, vocal masterclasses, and learning new repertoire with the CBC staff, Cantabile, and guest clinician Prof. Andrew Skoog from the Univ. of Tennessee-Knoxville. The fun day ends in an "informance" featuring the UTK Men's Choir and all workshop participants. Participants in the 2023 Tenor-Bass festival will premiere the TTB voicing of Music of Life by Brittney Boykin.
Participants should register by Oct. 13

2nd Grade Classroom Visits

January and February
The CBC staff will work with teachers to schedule a visit during second grade related arts time. CBC staff will present a mini lesson and talk to students about the Chattanooga Boys Choir. Together we'll listen to the students sing and identify those who may enjoy participating in the Chattanooga Boys Choir's programs. We'll provide you with information to send home to parents so they can come to an Open House in April.

Family Open Houses

Tuesday evenings in April
Families interested in joining the Chattanooga Boys Choir can come take a tour, meet the staff, observe a rehearsal, and learn more about Chattanooga Boys Choir programs, potential choristers can then audition for the 2024-2025 season..

