

CHATTANOOGA AREA MIDDLE SCHOOL CHORAL FESTIVAL

FEBRUARY 25, 2025

DR. MARTHA SHAW, GUEST CLINICIAN

Dr. Martha Shaw is the recently retired Director of Choral Activities at Reinhardt University and Founding Artistic Director of the world-renowned Spivey Hall Children's Choir in Atlanta GA. Her choirs have been featured in performances for state, regional, and national conventions of the American Choral Directors Association, the Orff-Schulwerk Association and Chorus America. A highly regarded clinician and guest conductor, Dr. Shaw has appeared throughout the country and around the world imparting both the joyful and essential nature of choral singing for thousands of singers, conductors, and teachers.

REFRESH. RENEW. RESOUND.

Join the Chattanooga Boys Choir and renowned guest clinician Dr. Martha Shaw for a fun, remarkable, and memorable experience of choral music-making especially designed for middle school choirs!

- Non-adjudicated large combined ensemble festival format; no auditions required!
- Bring singers and choirs of any experience and middle school grade level.
- Students should prepare music with the aid of provided part-learning materials in advance of the festival.
- The day culminates in an evening performance with festival participants, Dr. Shaw, and members of the Chattanooga Boys Choir.
- All events take place at First Baptist Church - 401 Gateway Ave. in Chattanooga

- SPACE LIMITED! Registration opens October 28, 2024 -