

SECOND ANNUAL CHATTANOOGA AREA MIDDLE SCHOOL CHORAL FESTIVAL

February 10, 2026

Join the Chattanooga Boys Choir and renowned guest clinician Mary Biddlecombe for a fun, remarkable, and memorable experience of choral music-making especially designed for middle school choirs!

- NO FEES for registration, venue, part preparation recordings, and clinician!
- Non-adjudicated large combined ensemble festival format; no auditions required!
- Bring singers and choirs of any experience and middle school grade level
- Evening performance with festival participants, Mrs. Biddlecombe, and members of the Chattanooga Boys Choir
- All events take place at First Baptist Church - 401 Gateway Ave. in Chattanooga

Mary Biddlecombe, Guest Clinician

Mary Biddlecombe serves as Director of the Blair Academy and as Artistic Director of the Vanderbilt Youth Choirs, overseeing the program's six choirs encompassing students in grades 1-12. She also teaches courses at Vanderbilt. Biddlecombe spent 10 years as a public-school choral director, and is a specialist in children's voices, particularly middle school and secondary choral settings. She has conducted all-state choruses for Alabama, Florida, Georgia, Colorado, and regional honor choirs throughout the United States. Biddlecombe holds a Master of Music in Choral Conducting from Florida State University, and a Bachelor of Music Education from the Crane School Music at SUNY Potsdam.

SPACE IS LIMITED! Registration opens October 27, 2025

www.chattanoogaboyschoir.org/middle info@cbchoir.org - 423-634-2299

